Tory Burch Shoes Come in the New Year by Catherine

Article published on February 9th 2012 | Shoes

Tory Burch was launched in February 2004 as a lifestyle concept with multiple product categories, including ready-to-wear, handbags, shoes and jewelry. Going against the minimalist trend that was popular at the time, Tory designed her flagship boutique, in downtown New York, to feel more like a room in her own home than a traditional retail store. Key design elements featured in all boutiques include orange lacquer doors, mirrored walls and Lucite fixtures.

Tory's childhood on a farm outside of Philadelphia, as well as her mother's and father's unique sense of personal style, influence the aesthetic of the collection. Her sensibility is also inspired by art, photography, films, travel and the work of interior designer David Hicks. Graphic prints and bold are all signatures of the brand. Michelle Obama, Julianne Moore, Katie Holmes, Oprah Winfrey, Uma Thurman, Gwyneth Paltrow and Hilary Swank all wear the Tory Burch collection.

Tory Burch is one of famous women's fashion brands which is well welcome by young American girls and women. There's nothing more chic and comfortable than our Tory Burch shoes. Fashion for clothes has gone to a whole new level in the past decades, but today it would not be complete without a pair of tory burch shoes. This year Tory, the designer, will be unveiling a collection that will see a mix of new designs and styles but also incorporation of new materials. Within no time almost all women, most especially the celebrities, will own a pair from the famous designer.

The designer makes her footwear with the stylish woman in mind. Most of her customers describe her footwear as not only comfortable but affordable. Her company began in 2004 designing not only footwear, but also jewelry and handbags. All Her brand footwear especially the have a sophisticated, elegant and classic style that allows the women to look fabulous. Women from all over the world will agree that footwear will not only complete a stylish look bit they are also a gateway to success.

Less than ten years down the line, she has been able to establish a brand that competes with some of the brands that have been there for a long time now. This is due to the fact that her designs are quite appealing. Spotting tory burch shoes for any woman is a chance to stand out and make a long lasting impression. The footwear are available in almost all the shoe
