3Fs- Famous Five Fragrances by John Smith

Article published on May 17th 2012 | Shopping

I wish if you would recall that my last newsletter ended on the note of trivia. For those of you who still havenâ€™t understood what it is here, well last time, I ended on the note of Happy Motherâ€™s Day to all my readers. Since then a thought struck to me that if we make efforts to take care of our kith and kin, why not for a day we pamper ourselves to care for the beautiful being that lives inside us.

If, last time it was â€˜othersâ€™, this time it will be all about â€˜I, me, myselfâ€™. As they say, â€œlove th then you can love othersâ€•. And what better way to rejuvenate the mind, body and soul with aromatic FRAGNANCES?

At Mukhallat.com, the wide array of products will make you spoilt for choice for sure. Here are listed 5 must have scents that should be there in your vanity. Must say with years of experience, it becomes easy for a man in a business of beauty to understand what the one or other damsel might like or not. Actually somewhere deep down, itâ€™s the same sense organs that work for all of us.

First off, let me talk about Zahra 30 ml CPO. Just dab it on the wrist and youâ€™re all set to go as this sweet floral oriental fragrance spreads with fruity notes while turning a little spicy.

I donâ€™t know about you, but I canâ€™t help myself when my senses comes in touch with Dreams of Romancia 395 20 ml CPO. Apply a subtle tone of this fragrance with soft notes of black currant and orange flower behind the ears and I bet youâ€™ll never want to stop dreaming.

Let your body absorb the graceful fresh floral perfume oil of Rasheeqa 20 ml CPO and youâ€™ll notice how wonderfully this fragrance that starts with a mild notes, swings to the middle note of rose, jasmine and hyacinth, and ultimately ends with a woody and musky base.

Spray the Youm Wara Youm CPO perfume in the front of your body and then walk in the air there. It opens with oriental fruity and fresh notes that will make the entire body absorb the fragrance that follows the woody notes of sandalwood and base notes of Patchouli, amber and musk.

Evoke romantic senses with the Hayati 20 ml CPO i.e. spicy and woody fragranced scent that is ruled by sun.

So get in on lass, and try it all!

Come next time and I will make sure that youâ€™ll get more interesting stuff to read. I promise there will be something for guys too.
