Article published on November 29th 2011 | Shopping

Lace, frills, drapes and glamour is what makes a dress. The garment that makes a girl look like a princess and makes her the beating heart of any occasion is a dress. There are myriad brands that will fit a dress on you and make you feel like a queen or at least will get close to making you experience royalty, but what matters is exclusive chic designs. There is a dearth of new designs because at present designers are busy revamping old styles in this new era. Well, there is one fashion line that hasnâ€™t deviated from its dedication to designing new wearable and fashionable dresses and that is Sherry Couture which has introduced its new collection Sweet16 dresses.

Mirror, mirror on the wall, who looks classy and nifty?

Sherry Couture is one of the most renowned fashion houses which renders to youth craze and taste. Its sheer passion for art and everything in vogue, that has got Sherry Couture, this maniacal success and a huge bandwagon following across the globe. Girls are natural shopaholics, dresses, shoes, handbags and whole enchilada is their obsession and Sweet16 dresses inflames this craze at a whole new level.

Girls turning sixteen, are vibrant and full of life. Their zest and zeal for life is remarkable, everything for them comes hunky-dory and therefore they search for dresses that replicate or reflect their personality. Vivacious colors, sequins, snazzy flared dress with a long trail is what they want to splurge on their sixteenth birthday or prom, no matter what the occasion. With this ongoing monomania, Sweet16 dresses are all they can vouch for and flaunt their curvy body.

Every girl must cogitate and not choose dresses that make them throw their trails and frills all over the place. Color and accessories are also very important. You must have heard the saying â€˜you alter yourself for a dressâ€™, and this is true when trying out or fitting high-end branded dresses. A dress looks stunning always, but to make it look beautiful on your body, you have to out in efforts too.

The said brand only caters to the youth. Therefore, young girls can easily fit into the dresses designed and do not have to break their backs to find the one dress that will outshine during the gathering. Trendy, classy and glamorous, these three words make up for the designs sketched by the said brand.

A good collection of Sherry Couture and Sweet16 dresseswith varied set of collection especially designed for young girls. These dresses are designed by professional and popular designers. So choose your dress online and shop for best offers!

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/shopping-articles/a-new-trend-sherry-couture.htm - Article Side

Prom Dazone - About Author:

Article Keywords:

Sherry Couture

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!