Well as per Culture sayings before the Christmas eve families decorate their home, place a Christmas trees in their houses decorate tree with decorative like bells, mistletoe and with stars. Children do believes that a fat man with long white beard, wearing red dress riding from north pole on slate travel to house of children who have been nice the entire year and made their way to nice list of Santa Claus and give the presents to childrenâ€™s who believes in it. So around the Christmas tree kids place a socks in which they think, Santa will come and place the Present for them. Children also offer some cookies and milk to Santa by keeping them under or around the Christmas tree.

But if Santa Claus travel the whole world in a single night then he might be ride on rocket instead of slate (which is dragged by Deer) come on, what if Santa forget your friend, sibling or children to give a Gift. They might get disappointed, so donâ€™t let your love ones lay down his/her believe in Santa Claus when Santa have too many children in world to care of , you can help him by becoming an exclusive Santa for your love one.
