Coloured Wedding Shoes the New Style Sensation by Qadir William

Article published on January 19th 2012 | Shopping

Traditional choices for wedding shoes of pristine white, warm ivory or metallic silver, gold or bronze are not the only option today. Of course, you can choose to have your shoes dyed in a colour to match or tone with, the rest of your outfit and adjusted to be seen in either daylight or when artificially lit. Or you could have a look at this season's dazzling display of rainbow choices just launched by some of the world's cutting edge shoe designers.

The choice is surprising: jewelled slip-on mules with metallic heels, sandals dripping with crystal decorations for a beach wedding, vintage wrap-around styles with a pearlised leather finish and even strappy gold lattice gladiator sandals which crisscross the instep, up to the ankle. There are vivid blues, enlivening reds, plushy purples as well as gentler, pearlier, tones.

Pedro Garcia's Swarovski Avril peep-toe heels come in the palest of pink on-trend 'nude' colour. These leg-lengtheners are the beautiful complement to a romantic, fairytale gown. Garcia's shiny scarlet Leslie Satin Pumps have a 100mm heel with a square toe, popular this spring. His 'Kelly' satin peep toe pump comes in a lovely vibrant, clear blue.

Imaginative innovator and shoe-wizard, Christian Louboutin, offers his new Very Prive Pumps. These are not pumps as they used to be known! In knockout fuschia sequins ('paillettes' are favoured this season) with 130mm heel - they are stunning. Similar high heeled pumps come in a silver snakeskin effect. His 'Rosazissimo' satin sandals have 100mm heels. In confident, clear cobalt blue, they would jazz up any summer wedding celebration.

The multi-coloured, pink and green floral/jungle print of Olivia Morris' Eden Satin Slingbacks are ideal to add a fresh look to an outdoor wedding. The shoes have round toe and a fastening ankle strap.

Aruna Seth has some delicious choices. Her Farfalla Tiffany Blue platform heel (110mm) is a peep-toe in an exquisite shade of light blue, trimmed with a gorgeous crystal butterfly. If you're looking for something a little wilder, you might like her Dita Leopard calf hair Wedge with a 110mm heel or her gloriously cosy pale grey apres ski boots, trimmed in white fur and crystal.

If you like these more unusual shoes, you might also enjoy her Cerise Nude Patent Wedges and the same style is also available in brightest red satin. On both designs the heels are emphasized with shimmering crystals and a cross grain bow trim.
