Dressing Up on a Date: How to Impress Your Girl by Lee Dove

Article published on March 12th 2012 | Shopping

The first date makes or breaks an awaiting romance. Here, the two friends who may sense a common attraction may decide if they should just continue being as friends or their relationship further. The first date can be compared to a test drive; the couple will spend some time with one another to discover each otherâ€™s faults, search for the fine points, and evaluate compatibility. Looking at these facts, it's only imperative that you leave a wonderful long lasting effect on your date.

Getting ready for the first date can be quite nail-bitingâ€”even if you've been in a thousand relationships before. The bottom line is to take things easy and make sure to have a good time regardless of how cumbersome things become. To make a lasting first impression, one thing you need to focus on is your outfit.

Clothes make the man, as the popular aphorism goes. Strictly speaking, it's the truth. Clothes represent approximately 90 percent of your appearance. No matter how drop-dead gorgeous or virile you may look, it is nonsense if you dress terribly. It's also critical to understand that what you wear expresses your identity. A sloppy toilette versus a neat one can be a make or break at this time.

The golden rule of dressing up is to put on something appropriate to the occasion or place. It's absurd to go to an area where you 'll stand out since you look absolutely different. Save your date with pride by reading the tips listed here.

Movie Dates. Most men go for some variations of a dinner-and-movie night on the first date. For this occasion, do not make a major effort. Select simple men clothes like a nice shirt, paired with sneakers and jeans. The reason is that dressing sharply on the first date gives her higher expectations on the nextâ€”provided there'll be another one. Be modest fashion-wise and show her what you're all about.

Musical Performances. The talk is an important part of the dateâ€”though the proper music can set the atmosphere. If you're taking her to music shows, consider the nature of the music and the place. For mellow music, suit up in your finest clothing. A great suit can bring out the Prince Charming in you. Alternatively, choose simple clothing for men if you're taking her to pop or rock concerts.

Night Spots. If you will go clubbing with her at a trendy nightclub, then you need to put your greatest foot forward and don your trendiest attire. In case you think that nothing in your wardrobe looks good enough, do not be scared to shop. Visit shops that have both short and tall mens apparel to prepare for the night.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/shopping-articles/dressing-up-on-a-date-how-to-impress-your-girl.htm - Article Side

Lee Dove - About Author:
For more details, search a men clothes, a clothing for men, and a tall mens apparel in Google for related information.

Article Keywords:
clothing for men, men clothes, tall mens apparel

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!