Enid Hutt Gallery is creating stunning framed images, which is one of their specialties and they still continually upgrade their skills as well as technologies in order to help in the demand for the best quality as well as creative design. It is a family run business with over 15 years of experience, offering a great and huge selection of only the best wall hanging prints as well as limited editions, originals and sculptures in both traditional and modern styles. Their workshop is actually one of the most advanced in Scotland. They also use the most up to date technology which include computerized mount cutting and frame making equipment, which will also maintains quality at its maximum output.

Their specialist online collection includes some famous artists whose work is as diverse and individual as their customers, which also reflected in their choice of art. It has been said that the world of Mackenzie Thorpe reflects our own that offer flashes of everyday life. Thorpe's art covers childhood, work as well as leisure and love. With the satisfyingly rounded shapes and occasional, cartoonish styles, there is no wonder that his prints can convey a range of emotion as well as spirit of those people who can see his work of art. Through the strength of his work, it only shows that Mackenzie truly believes that children should enjoy their childhood life.

Another great artist who doesn't even want to categorized his art as a certain style is Fabian Perez. He actually believe to not limit himself, that is why you will surely noticed that his work is extremely uniquely expressive, bringing to the surface his strong romantic emotions and you can all see this in all of his prints. Other than that, you can actually buy from a wonderful range of Fabian Perez prints here at Enid Hutt Gallery, which also includes signing of some limited editions. With this, you can do contact them if you are really interested in purchasing the original artworks by Fabian Perez.

At the Enid Hutt Gallery, you can also find a beautiful collection of five Jack Vettriano prints that have been already released. Available as giclee prints either with or without frame, these include some brand new paintings that features his unmistakable storytelling. Among his collection, his primary focus are those wonderful women. Glamorous, beautiful as well as powerfully sexual, the women featured in his signed prints are extremely magnificent examples of the artist's work. His work are also recognizable for exposing a world that is said to be seemingly based in the 30's and 40's, of men with also classically masculine silhouttes and curvaceous women in form-fitting fashions.
