Safe travels are one of the most enjoyable and interesting thing we can do, but with traveling comes some risks for which you have to take precautions. For safe travel you have to keep your self and your children seat belted when the car is moving. You have to keep your cash stashed out of sight and should not display large amounts of cash and flash it in a store. Ensure safe travels by having a first aid kit in your car at all times. You should not permit any strangers to come near your luggage or ask them to watch it while you go to a restroom. You have to keep regular medication handy. You must not carry your most valued jewelry while traveling.
