Glorify the Christening Day with Traditional and Trendy Gifts by Brayden Cook

Article published on February 22nd 2012 | Shopping

Baptism or Christening a baby is the most important religious ceremony at the beginning of a childâ€™s life. On that very day, the child is given an identity. This ceremony is performed by the prophets followed by a reception party. At this party, relatives and friends make fun and shower blessing and christening gifts to the infant. However, making the right choice of gifts on that very day is very essential so that it can be treasured for a long time.

Christening Gifts are the best medium to convey your love and blessings for the new born. Your gifts should be unique from the others. Before you fix any choice, always consider your relation with the baby. If you are very close to the baby, and have a sound budget then you will have a variety of options before you.

Ask yourself if the baby is a boy or a girl. There are different options for boys and girls. However, the Bible and christening cross can be gifted to both. These are the best and very popular gifts. Christening gifts must carry a long lasting impact on the childâ€™s life. If you have planned to buy something traditional, you can buy silver items, as silver is known as an auspicious metal on the christening day. Silver cross, silver chain or small silver bell will be liked by the new parents. You can buy a silver spoon and can engrave the babyâ€™s name in it. These are all traditional christening gifts; you can buy for the new born.

If you want to make your presentation a bit trendy, and modern you can go for photo frames. You can laminate a photo of the infant in the lap of his parents and can add you message with it. Photo and photo frames are very touchy gifts for anyone. They can place your photo frame in the corner of the babyâ€™s room. You can also gift piggy bank and can put commemorative coins of that particular year as your christening gifts. The best thing for an infant is his/her toys. You can buy toys and can personalize them. Hand made sweaters, clothes or personalised blankets will show your love and affection for the child.

Christening gifts have a deep significance as it is the first occasion of a childâ€™s life. A new born is considered as the best gift of God; therefore, we must celebrate the occasion with love and care.
