Solid Values. Your skin and health come first. Bubble Hut was founded by Denaige McDonnell (Chief Rainbow Painter) when she couldnâ€™t find any products that work for her babyâ€™s sensitive skin Since she created the first bar of Angel Baby Natural Homemade Soap she hasnâ€™t changed that core value in the company. We start every idea and every product with one simple question. â€œWill this be safe and healthy for our customerâ€™s skin?â€•

Our customers deserve respect. When Keith McDonnell (Chief Bubble Counter) bought in to the company he brought his passion for customer service. At Bubble Hut we believe that every customerâ€™s opinion and concern should be listened to because without them our business would not exist. Our customer service attitude starts with quick and easy ways of ordering your product to using the best methods to ship our product to you and ends with clear contact information so you can reach us with any questions you have.

Education not deception. Many companies like to hide their â€œbadâ€• practices behind lots of fancy marketing and buzz words. We understand that every customer is an individual and may have questions about our business practices. At Bubble Hut we will give you straight answers every time. And if we donâ€™t know? Weâ€™ll admit it!

Skin care should be fun! Denaige knows that when you have sensitive skin it can be extremely difficult to find products that work for you and even more difficult to find products that you enjoy. We believe that with Bubble Hut products you should be able to have fun again! All our products Natural Homemade Handcrafted Soap, Natural Liquid Soap, natural body massage oils, Lip Scrubs, cream for body, oil for face, lush bath bombs, sensitive skin lotions, and any other bath and shower body products should bring back the word FUN when you take care of your skin.
