Article published on November 29th 2011 | Shopping

I have always been wondering what keeps many of us away from the celebration of Christmas. I was shocked to see many of my cosines have almost stopped celebrating Christmas. I decided to make sure they tell me what is the reason behind it as I know they were lot happy as young kids when they we use to celebrate the Christmas.

I could not help myself and asked them what is it that keeps you people from Christmas? They told me its work. I could not relate it, if everyone in the world can manage some time why he or she cannot; After all, we all have holidays in Christmas. I finally decided to invite them to my place and see what is stopping them from Christmas.

They did arrive on the 25th morning and everything looked normal when my sister in law (wife of my cosine) asked me how I got decoration flowers delivered at my home. I smiled and told her I booked it online on FNP (Ferns and Petals). Know I stared to understand where these people get problem. Most of us are not aware of these alternative ways for Christmas shopping. In case of my brother who works with a popular bank, he is not aware where can he buy flowers? As he is busy with work till the 24th and on 25th you have Christmas and thus he not able to make Christmas flowers arrangements. Therefore, the first thing was I told them about the online florist, and how to get flowers online without investing much of time.

The second thing I realized which is important for the Christmas is to send gifts and Christmas greeting to our friends and relatives. I took my brother to my bedroom and showed him, how he could send Christmas flowers to his friends in Indian and outside of India. This service is equally helpful for those living abroad as if you want to send Christmas gifts to India you can do it with the help of Ferns n Petals (FNP). Thus they were highly impressed ad now I can see them all ready for the Christmas celebration and I have already received there Christmas cake that they have sent me with the help of online Christmas store.

We all look up to the best Christmas decoration on the eve of Christmas and if possible try to send the best Christmas greeting to your friends and relatives. We not only send Christmas flowers to our beloved one but we also send Christmas greeting card. However, it can be difficult to send those greeting cards to our beloved ones, as we may not be able to get enough time. I wish you all have a wonderful Christmas and you all enjoy with your family members. Once again Merry Christmas to all.
