Picking the Perfect Chair Cover for Your Wedding Theme by Chaircoverdepot

Article published on January 30th 2012 | Shopping

When you have decided on a wedding theme, it is important for your decor to properly translate that theme. Chair covers are extremely important when it comes to visualizing your theme as there will always be a multitude of chairs at your event and they can be as bold or as sophisticated as your theme calls for.

When youâ€™ve figured out your theme, take a look at the choices of chair covers at Chair Cover Depot and let your imagination run wild with a spectrum of different chair cover colours, textures, and styles.

Ivory and White

If youâ€™re going for a classy and elegant look, you have a nice pick of chair covers to choose from. If you are on a budget, then youâ€™ll want to look into White and Ivory Scuba Covers. The Scuba Covers are very versatile and durable, giving you a comfortable and elegant feel to your event.

If you have a little more to spend, why not check out the Shiny Satin Wrap Chair Covers, the Pleated Skirt Cover with Box, and the Ruched Lycra Cover? Each of these chair covers will give your event grace as well as a style of its own. Your guest will be elegantly surprised at how these covers can light up an event.

Black Tie Sophistication

For a more sophisticated and sleek look, you can have your choice between tight and slim chair covers or draped chair covers. The Scuba Chair Covers do come in a black shade, giving your event a cool feel for a not very expensive price. If you are willing to spend a little more, you may want to look into the Lycra Covers and the Ivory Damask Cover. The Lycra gives you the option of choosing a nice sleek black, silver, gold, or ivory while the Ivory Damask Cover allows you to have elegance with a twist. The subtle ivy pattern on the Ivory Damask Cover is a sophisticated touch to a black tie event.

Indian Summer

An Indian Summer theme is all about bold colours and statements. If youâ€™re looking to woo your guests with an event that will stand out, then youâ€™ll definitely want to make use of the Lycra Chair Covers and spruce them up with diamante buckles and sashes. With colours ranging from lime green, hot pink, orange, red, turquoise, etc, you can choose a chair cover which will transport people from a venue hall into a colourful and vibrant Indian Summer.

Tropical Sea Breeze

If you want your wedding to be more of a breeze and highlight some tropical themes, youâ€™ll want to definitely try the turquoise and navy blue Lycra Covers. The vivacious colours, along with their shiny texture will set a serene mood for your guests as they celebrate your wedding in a sea of blue. The Ruched Lycra Chair Cover is also a good addition with this theme as the texture is a little like water, which will be nice seating for both the bride and groom.
