Have you ever attended a christening ceremony? Well, if you have not, you should know something regarding the occasion. Christening is a ceremony conducted in every Christian family to welcome a newborn into the Christian community. The entire ceremony is conducted graciously in the church, and all near ones remain present there to shower blessings on the child. So, if you are one of them making preparations to attend a christening session, make sure you carry a present for the newborn as a pious offering. So, if you are not getting any single clue as what christening gifts you should go for, have a look at the following gift ideas that can surely ease your job:

Personalised Blue Christening Plate â€“ Its one of the most beautifully ornamented personalised christening gifts. The outer section of the plate comes with an elegant bluer coloured design that makes it completely stand out in the list of christening gifts. You can personalise it by adding the childâ€™s name along his/her date of christening.

Personalised Blue Church Teddy with T-shirt â€“ It is not one of those teddies which you often get to see at the gift stores. Rather, itâ€™s a personalised teddy bear wearing a cute little t-shirt. This makes the teddy lovable and hence stands perfect among the christening gifts for infants.

My Christening Day Frame Knife Fork and Spoon â€“ This is a wonderful option in the list of christening gifts. By gifting this, you will be helping the parents get all those essential things for their child. At one time or the other, the parents had to buy these for their little one. So, you can ease their job in one way by gifting this nice christening present.

Personalised Whimsical Train Clock â€“ If there is anything amusing, itâ€™s the Personalised Whimsical Train Clock which can be kept always at the childâ€™s personal room. When the child will start growing, he/she will take interest to check the time. The clock is beautifully designed with the image of a train that makes it look ideal for infants.

50th Birthday Gifts

Looking for birthday presents for one stepping 50 can never be a tedious job if you consider any of the following 50th birthday gifts ideas for help:

Happy 50th Birthday Champagne Bottle Frame â€“ This is a wonderful combination where you will be presenting not only a photo frame but a champagne bottle as well. Both the items are artistically stacked with each other.

Personalised Birthday Balloon Champagne â€“ This is indeed an exclusive present for one turning fifty. You can even personalise it with any message you wish. There is no doubt that it counts to be an exclusive option in the list of 50th birthday gifts.
