On the outskirts of Clonmel Town, The Equine Warehouse is conveniently located here and it has been also in the establishment for over 10 years. They have been supplying industry professionals and leaders of all interests and disciplines for over ten years too. This store is situated in Ard Gaoithe Business Park on the Main Cashel Road, which is just over 1km from the town centre traffic. It now also offers an even larger range of equine related products and services. They actually offers one of the largest ranges of quality equestrian products both in their store and through online as well, and stock a wide range of riding equipment for both for the horse and rider as well as offering a vast array of supplements and veterinary care products for your horses well being.

Equine hoof care and then leg care is said to be one of the most important areas that you must have to look after for your horse. The mobility of a horse is very much important to its health and well being as well. They have also a great selection of very much affordable leg and hoof care products in order to make sure that your horse has the best quality of life, from the general health care for work as well as competition. The Equine Warehouse hoof care products include some of the special products in order to deal with any issues that your horse might possibly experience, and also day to day care. Products such as Keratex Hoof Hardener can also help in strengthen the hoof, which is also due to the promotion of keratin in the hoof.

When it comes to the general health as well as wellbeing of a horse, they certainly need important minerals in order to keep their body in balance. It is not always possible to find the right minerals in some of the general foodstuffs, and it is also often necessary to provide them separately, or even added to feed. With this, it is very much important to offer salt along with the food and water as an important supplement when it comes to their daily diet. Other than that, they have also a choice of horse licks from brands such as NAF and Wendels. Choose from horse licks such as NAF Himalyan Salt Licks, which certianly provide 100% rock salt, or Wendels Pure Garlic Salt Lick. Garlic is also great for adding to the diet of your horse because of the fact that, it provides a range of benefits such as being a powerful anitbiotic.

Moreover, while summer can bring warmer days and a little less rain perhaps, it also does bring insects too. Fortunately, The Equine Warehouse can help you to get prepared and thanks to the great selection of equine fly control treatments that are now available from their store. From insect repellents to some bite treatments, you will surely find a selection of great products made in order to make sure that your horse will be comfortable. Equine insect control repellents from their store come in different applications. Of course they have fly sprays of various quantities, but also wipes and gels. This versatile range makes sure that you can now possibly keep your horse free of frustration as well as irritation that pets and insects bites bring.
