

Article published on December 27th 2011 | Shopping

Small cars have high demand in India due to its affordable price and better performance. It is better known as a backbone of Indian car market that play key role in the development and also to lure majority of car lovers. The leading automobile company Maruti Suzuki achieved milestone for offering small cars at affordable price. The domestic automobile company has launched many small cars in the Indian car market that became equally popular and got acclaimed response in the market. Indian leading auto major Tata Motor became great competitor of Maruti Suzuki by launching Tata Indica that created a history of high demand and registered surging sales figure.

Apart from domestic auto major, some international automobile companies like Hyundai, Fiat, Ford, Chevrolet and others also made their presence in the auto market by launching small cars. Honda Motors, specialized for manufacturing luxurious sedan, also stepped into small car segment and introduced two cars Honda Jazz and Brio, with highly attractive look and at affordable prices. Here's an important look at top small cars in India that are known for higher efficiency and outstanding performance

Maruti Suzuki Alto, the domestic auto major has been ruling on the Indian car market since a long time and still maintained its identity by introducing Alto that created a history of wonderful sales record. It comes in innovative look and available in several models that includes LX, Lxi. Powered by 796 cc engine, the Maruti Alto is also introduced in CNG variant that is highly fuel efficient. Moreover the new version of Alto is also introduced that is famous as Alto K10, blessed with 998 cc engine that is capable of churning out max power of 67 Bhp .

Hyundai i10, it is one of the best selling car in the Indian car market that became popular for its sporty looks and wonderful performance. The car lures youngsters at large extent and offers outstanding performance. It offers mileage of 15 kmpl and available at a price of Rs 3,54,972 (Ex-Showroom Delhi).

Chevrolet Beat, it is widely recognized for its dazzling exterior that is designed in sporty style and capable of tantalizing the sense of buyers at great extent. The Beat is introduced in 10 different variants and available at the starting price of Rs 3,55,490.

Maruti Swift, the newly launched Maruti Swift is quite different from old variants in terms of features and looks. Boasting two engines like 1.2L K-Series petrol and 1.3L DDiS diesel, the Maruti Suzuki Swift is available in six different variants.

Hyundai i20, the car is available at the price of Rs 4,59,205 and blessed with stylish interior that offers enough space to accommodate five members. It is blessed with lots of safety features like ABS, front dual airbags, front seat belts, Brakeforce Distribution and more.

Ford Figo, American auto major Ford Motor created an stir in the Indian auto market by launching a small car in invigorating looks and highly decorated room interior. The car comes in diesel variant as well and sports lots of features like , electric-adjust mirrors, integrated music system with Bluetooth, power adjustable mirror and various safety features.

<http://www.articleside.com/shopping-articles/top-small-cars-in-india.htm> - Article Side

Mike Nielsen - About Author:

Autoinfoz India's largest car portal provides complete and comparative information about cars in India, a new cars in India and where user can find out the latest a car picture gallery, car wallpapers, car news and reviews of all car models.

Article Keywords:

New Cars, New Cars In India, New Cars India, Auto News India, car wallpapers

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!