According to Benjamin Franklin â€œA house is not a home unless it contains food and fire for the mind as well as the bodyâ€• A home is like a nest of a bird, which has to be tended with extreme care to attract a mate that is satisfied with the level of comfort it can provide for the family they intend to build. Similarly, a home for people has to be build and maintained with the same kind of dedication so that people live with great harmony with each other. The surroundings have a great psychological and physiological effect on the group that is living within its sphere, and hence it has to be tailored for the right effect. Mullican hardwood floors provide a strong foundation for a home which is available in both traditional and exotic varieties which aim to provide the desired effect on the mindsets of the people. They have over 1500 unique products within their brand name which has given people a far greater range to choose from.

They have come up with eco-friendly soy based finishing which are considered to be the safest because they are now replacing chemical based polish. After years of development, they have come up with the right solutions which are now being used in many places like schools, daycare centers, hospitals etc. These specialized products are now 100 % soy based that makes this product much safer than the traditional product. Mercier hardwood floors have become 25% much more durable, antimicrobial, 35 year comprehensive warranty and the only furnishing that has Greenguard School as well as Children certification. A healthier environment has been the first goal of these companies which have come out with the best products that people wished to have in their homes. People do not have to look towards flooring with petroleum based chemical finishing any more.

The most important aspect of the whole deal is the installation and service of the flooring which comes after choosing the right design. Hiring the best flooring installation service is the most essential aspect that helps bring out the true beauty that a home owner hoping to have. The quality assurance of 10 guarantees for the ultimate customer satisfaction has been the main motto for this organization. Flooring maintenance for 1 year after installation is the highlight of this service that is aimed to make the clients feel at ease.
