They say clothes make a man. Now, if that clichÃ©d statement has any weight to it, then tuxedo shirts have to be somewhere in the top order in the list of personality improving clothesline. A formal tuxedo can easily turn heads in a way that very few other clothes can match. Iâ€™m not just talking party wear only.

Tuxedo not only adds a dash of charm to your personality, but it will also create a warm impression in those you meet and greet. And with the variety in color, fabric and style available through the experts, you can be rest assures that a tuxedo will enhance your personality to a great extent.

Hereâ€™s a rundown on how to go about selecting a tuxedo shirt for you. Tuxedo shirts are largely available in white color since they complement almost any suit color. However, if you have a penchant for being different, a black tuxedo shirt can also prove to be a good choice. When you are attending a formal party, a black tuxedo will add stars in your dressing. This can be a good choice if you are going for a funeral.

While it can add a tint of luxury to your style, it surely wonâ€™t make you look too bold in your statement. Collars and cufflinks can also add sharpness to a black tuxedo shirt, provided you know what would be the right for the occasion you are attending. So itâ€™s necessary that you do your math well before making your purchase lest you feel uncomfortable in the weird gazes of the onlookers.

Formal tuxedo shirts are usually pleated to showcase a definite grace in the appearance. Of course, the fact remains that there is not just one sort of pleated design that you will find yourself faced with. It can be a one inch pleated front, a Â½ inch pleated front, a Â¾ inch pleated front or even side pleats in the back.

Your tailor, who can customize the shirt according to your body structure and complexion, can be the best judge of what would look good on you. Blend your sense of styling along with the traditional way of dressing for an occasion while choosing a tuxedo. Make sure you step into the store of a seasoned tuxedo maker who can offer you maximum options and highlight your personality in the best way possible.
