Love is a beautiful feeling and women love to be loved. And all the men should know how to pamper her in every possible way. Gifting is one such way to express your love. Selecting a gifts for woman in your life isnâ€™t much of an issue as women love it even if they are receiving something as small as a pair of ear rings. But for those who want to make their woman feel on top of the world, here we present a list of gift items that sheâ€™ll love.

The classic: A huge teddy bear she can snuggle up to when she would miss you , a flower, a rose, a card and a cake.

Apparel : One of the things that women are obsessed about are their clothes. They want their wardrobe to include everything that a Katie holmes, aishwarya rai or Angelina jolieâ€™s wardrobe has. Well now thatâ€™s a joke but you can atleast gift her one out of ten things that will make her proud of her wardrobe. A D&G dress or a Versace top that she can flaunt among her peers.

Bag n bags: A woman will never step out of her abode without a bag or a clutch. It contains everything that she would need whole day-make-up kit, cell phone, perfume, mirror, comb n so much more and for that reason she would love to be gifted all types of bags. For a trendy chic- a trendy bag, gift a classy white bag to a woman whoâ€™s classy. And a clutch with it would be a cherry on top.

Footwear: Well, now youâ€™ve gifted her a pricy dress, a bag umm is anything missing? Well, footwear would just complete that look. Women have a passion for their footwear. You would know what she wears frequently or what she is dying to have but canâ€™t because of the price tag, well then, you love her right? You can sacrifice your beers this week and save to get her those Jimmy Choo heels sheâ€™s been eyeing on since she stepped in her teenage.

Accessories: Neckpieces, earrings, rings, anklets, women canâ€™t have enough of them.

A trip for you two: Plan out a day or few days(for those who can hop out of their homes easily) with her and fly off to a place so peaceful and where you can get to know your woman better. She would remember this experience for the rest of her life.

Showpieces : Frames, wall arts, wind chimes, flower vase there are so many things. Gifting a showpiece isnâ€™t a traditional and old idea. In fact, every time she would look at that showpiece, she would remember you. What else do you wish for? Spa treatments, anniversary rings gift her anything but with all your love. And donâ€™t forget to always be there by her side-even when she sayâ€™ that she doesnâ€™t need you. It would make all the difference.
