Are you planning to buy christening gifts for a baby boy? If yes then you have landed up in the right place. Your gifts are a means to express your unspoken emotions. Your excellent choice of gifts can beautify the gracious occasion of christening. The range of christening gifts is wide, and is easily available in the local stores as well as on the online mart.

The occasion of christening is sacred and is considered to be the most important religious ceremony in the life of the Christians. A child born to Christian parents is baptized by the priest on the day of christening. Christening ceremony takes place in the church in front of the childâ€™s family members and friends. On this auspicious occasion the child is named in the name of Christ the lord. The baby is placed in the holy water; either partially or completely. It is believed that when the child is raised from the water all the sins of his past life wash away.

The new born child in this process earns the eligibility to attend the church. After the ceremony of christening comes to an end, a party is held in the childâ€™s honour, where the child is showered with love and christening gifts.

You can present the baby boy with christening gifts like, christening boy photo album with cross, blue christening church plate, button corner book ends, baby boy cradle clear intentions crystal collectible, or my christening day frame knife fork and spoon.

You can even personalise your gifts by imprinting the photo of the child, by inscribing the name of the new born baby, the date of christening, and the occasion. Personalised christening gifts are going to make the occasion of christening memorable.

Personalised blue baby basket, personalised bootee blue christening plate, personalised blue church loving mug, personalised blue Epoxy 1st keepsake box, or the personalised blue church teddy with t-shirt, are some of the christening gifts which is sure to delight your little one.

Silver is considered to very auspicious by the Christians. Silver plated christening day certificate holder, silver plated train with carriages tooth and curl set, silver plated digger money box, silver plated pirate ship money box, or silver plated racing car money box, will surely stand out with elegance among all other christening gifts.

Among the christening gifts piggy bank holds a special position. You can even personalise them, to add to the charm of the occasion. You can gift the toddler with Vera Wang silver plated baby piggy bank, Royal Selangor Winnie the Pooh money box, blue train piggy bank money box, personalised cross blue christening money box, or christening Noahs Ark money box.
