When a child is born to a Christian family the infant is taken to the church, where the ceremony of christening takes place in front of the friends, and family members of the new born child. According to the age old Christian convention, the child is assigned an identity by naming him in the name of the almighty. The priest immerses the child partially or completely in the holy water, with the belief that when the child will be raised from the water all his sins will wash away. Christening ceremony marks the induction of the child into the Christian community and confers him the right to attend the church. The baby is showered with christening gifts in the party, which is held immediately after the christening ceremony to honour the child.

Among the huge variety of Christening gifts, silver plated Christening day certificate holder, Vera Wang Silver plated baby piggy bank, Silver plated Cinderella coach money box, christening cross necklace in box, can be excellent choice of christening gift items for baby boy and girl respectively.
