UK Visa and Immigration - Tips on How to Avoid Immigration Fraud and an Immigration Scam by UK Visa Immigration

Article published on January 16th 2012 | Society

Fraud costs UK taxpayers a high amount of money, increases the processing time of valid Visa applications and causes untold distress to the victims of fraudulent activity.

Therefore, it's key to remain vigilant when it comes to fraudulent activity. The issue of Immigration can lead many into taking desperate measures to secure a Visa, but these measures often lead to severe consequences.

Avoid Document Fraud

Misrepresentation of yourself through fraudulent documents or supplying fraudulent documents to others for the purposes of carrying out Immigration fraud or an Immigration scam carry severe penalties for those involved.

If someone else is filling out an application on your behalf, whether it is an Immigration firm, a family member or any other source, YOU are still responsible for the application and all the documents that support it. So be sure to check that all the information supplied to the authorities is correct. This will ensure that you don't become the victim of Immigration fraud or an Immigration scam.

Identifying dishonest Immigration companies and Immigration agents

As an Office of the Immigration Services Commissioner (OISC) Accredited Company, UK Visa and Immigration is regulated and able to offer advice concerning Immigration matters. However, there are many companies and individuals that set out with the intention of setting up an Immigration scam or partaking in Immigration fraud.

Many of these false companies and individuals will often set up elaborate websites that look appealing and are designed to attract vulnerable people desperate to resolve an Immigration issue. These websites will promise anything to gain your trust and once you make contact company representatives are soon on hand to take your money without providing a service.

In such cases it's a good idea to do your research, check the OISC website to find out if the company is registered, but also read plenty of reviews about the company to find out if they are genuine. Click here for UK Visa and Immigration reviews.

If you believe you have been the victim of Immigration fraud, an Immigration scam or a false Immigration company then you can report your issue to the UK Border Agency (UKBA).
