There is much speculation around in about 2012 years. You do not have to search so hard - its all over the Internet. Some of it is insightful and worth printing, but too much of it is just sensationalism and appeals on the concerns and fears of the masses. It's unfortunate that many people see only the tip of astrology alive and deep self-awareness tool.

People seem to want quick fixes, these fast food solutions to problems in their life, but seldom the truth. Astrology has become commercial, not the truth of his allegations, but on the belief that with her knowledge can be found, glory and joy and love. Nothing could be further from the truth.

Astrology promising anything, promise anything, it certainly can not provide a complete solution to any of life's problems. It's not a toy to be played with or joked about or. Astrology has been cheapened over the years by trying to make it acceptable to everyone as a form of popular entertainment quackery.

Her honor has been stained with sadness. Astrologers, they want to compete with science, tried to prove that astrology is a level equivalent with science. It's not and it can not be.

Science deals with mind and matter. He analyzes and reasons and seems to prove. Astrology, however, deals with life and energy, both of which are changing and sometimes unpredictable.

Scientists want to put the genie back into the bottle and make it serve them. Astrologers are fascinated simply by the devil and want to find out how the magic works demons. Life should not be dissected to be understood.

In fact, you can not analyze it. The whole secret is revealed in life leads to another, and yet another way, all infinity. When you think or feel you know the answer, another twist appears.

Life can only be truly experienced through ads hugging her perfectly mystery. Astrology is a tool of the heart and consciousness in its highest form. Astrology as it now is not bad or evil, only diluted and watered down the drain easily adopt.

It has been weakened by ewritingpal reviews cheapening because people want to use it, not as it is intended, which, to be guided by him into awareness of reality. .
