Vedic astrology, also called Hindu or Jyotish astrology, is over 5,000 years old. The astrology was not experimentally contrived. It was perceived through enlightened vision Parasara, an ancient sage who is believed to have written the ancient Vedic texts. If you are in the UK and you would like Vedic astrology, go for Indian astrologers in UK. This is because these astrologers understand Hindi, the language in which Vedic texts are written in, and they therefore understand the astrology more and these astrologers, being Indians, understand the context better.
