In thousands years, a divine souls incarnates itself to give the world the message of pure love and devotion. This great soul breaks the shackles of ignorance and takes his disciples to the path of true knowledge. This great soul alleviates the pains of people and encourages them to follow the path of humanity for the reunion with god.

One such soul that blesses the earth with its divine presence is Jagatguru Kripalu ji Maharaj. He was born in 1922 and got his education in Kashi, Chitrakut and Indore. He had a divine personality since his childhood. He left the worldly pleasure at an early age and dedicated his life for the realization of pure RadhaKrishna love. Soon he attained a state of trance called Mahabhav. Mahabhav is the highest state of meditation. In his Mahabhav he experienced the complete reunion with supreme soul and then he came back to preach the world the teachings of pure Radhakrishna love.

Jagatguru Kripalu ji Maharaj believes that all ancient religions of world were based on the same principles. All religions have one goal and that goal is the attainment of true wisdom about one's own existence. Some religions believe in Sakar Brahm (God with human form) and some other religions believe in Nirakaar Brahm (God having no form). Some devotees worship the idols of their favorite gods whereas other devotees believe in the omnipresent form of god.

According to Jagatguru Kripalu ji Maharaj, Radhakrishna love is the purest form of love and the easiest way towards self realization. He encourages his disciples to realize the true meaning of Radhakrisna love and then takes them towards the path of ultimate reunion with supreme soul. He has a profound knowledge of ancient religious scriptures and believes that all human beings are equal and therefore he imparts his knowledge to all without any distinction. He believes that everyone can experience the highest state of meditation and attain the ineffable pleasure of complete reunion.

Jagatguru Kripalu ji Maharaj is the divine inspiration of modern age that can take you to the path of self realization and alleviate the worldly pains of people and break the shackles of their sufferings. In his inspiration many charitable works are being organized so as to help the human beings to come out of their sufferings. His inspiration is continuously working towards the formation of better tomorrow through the development of moral values among human beings.
