We all are fascinated by the time machine that will take us back in our past and maybe show us how our future is going to be. However, we have forgotten that we have an ancient time machine which is known as Vedic Astrology or Jyotish Vidya. Indians are practicing Indian Vedic Astrology since thousands of years, and it has been proven that Indian Vedic Astrology can predict about every second of life depending upon the knowledge and experience of Vedic astrologer.

There are several forms of predicting future like palmistry, numerology, tarot reading, etc and all of them are very useful but astrology is widely used in the world. There are three forms of astrology: Western Astrology, Chinese Astrology and Indian Vedic Astrology. Like every other form of future prediction, these three forms are useful for predicting future and uses own rules and methods. Chinese and western astrology consider the movement of sun for calculations. Whereas Indian Astrology considers Sun, Moon, and other planets while calculating hence Vedic astrologer considered larger picture and thus provide you more specific prediction.

Hindu Astrology uses zodiac signs, which are vital part of Indian astrology. These zodiac signs are actually Indian horoscope. There are twelve zodiac signs each governed by a specific planet and thus has a specific effect on human life. The movement of planets, moon and earth around the sun affects the zodiac signs in positive or negative way and thus affects the life of a person with that particular zodiac sign. Apart from these planets there are heavenly bodies "Rahu" and "Ketu" which have very strong effect on person's life. Apart from these planetary movements Vedic astrologers consider the Dasha system. Dasha system is based on constellation of a natal moon in a birth chart that tells about events that will happen, in particular time. Dasha system is unique method that no other branch of astrology predicts.

Indian astrology is important in every small-big events of human in India and nowadays many parts of the world. Vedic astrology is used to make Kundali of newly born baby. When baby born Vedic astrologer calculates the position of planets as per the birth time and then suggests the first character on which baby's name will be kept.

Not only, for the name of baby but Indian astrology is also used, when two souls are decided to unite. In arrange marriage Hindu astrology is used and Vedic astrologer will decide whether the couple is compatible for each other or not.
