The summer Olympic Games to be held in the historical city of London is expected to be the most exciting event of the year 2012. The games are set to change the lives of all the people involved to it, directly or indirectly. The organizer city therefore has a lot of expectations in all the terms. The Olympic Games 2012 events are to start from 27th of July this year. Olympic Games are celebrated as one amongst the worldâ€™s greatest event or more so, worldâ€™s greatest festival. And this time the London Olympics create a new record, of being hosted at a particular venue thrice. The first London Olympics was organized in the year 1908, and the second in 1948. The London Olympics are to be held in three different sites, each game to be held in a particular venue. People have been waiting for this colossal and extravagant event. The tickets have already been on sale since March 2011. The Olympic Games tickets will help make about Â£375-Â£400 million to the organizers. There are some of the Olympic Games 2012 events which are free of cost.

These games include marathon, triathlon, and road cycling. However, sailing will be a sport which would charge the spectators with the ticket fee, unlike other Olympic events in history. The Olympic Gameâ€™s tickets were also given as event prizes in many shows since the year 2011. This helped it in its promotion as well. This summer Olympic Games are to commence from 27 July 2012 and will finish on 12th of August the same year. With the end of all events on the 12th of August, the Medals of whose results are distributed simultaneously after each event, London will host the closing ceremony on the same day. There are supposedly 4700 Olympic medals to be distributed in total. The Olympic Games results are always declared simultaneously as the games progresses and the Olympic medals are also distributed according to the winners, right after the declaration of results. The Olympic confers 3 kinds of medals viz... the bronze, the silver and the gold.

Thus the Olympic gamers prepare their whole lives to be placed in the top three ranks of the games. The summer Olympics Games of the year 2012 is different from rest in quite many aspects. The grandness of the event, and the deep rooted its preparations are, as per the host country, can be understood once one visits the place himself. Each London citizen and people from the other nearby cities has made the preparations, their sole measures of living. This Olympic Games torch relay will commence from 18th of May 2012 from Greece, and will last on 27th of July in the host city. The name to the opening ceremony of this event has been given as â€œThe Isles of Wonderâ€•. With so much happening and with such great expectations, The London Olympics seems to be a worth attending event. Even if one is unable to capture ticket for their favourite sport or event, having able to just attend any of them will be overwhelming enough for anyone. The event will bring fun and pleasure, and who knows you might even start to love the event, which you had come for (unwillingly)!!!
