If you look around, youâ€™ll notice this peculiar fact that mobile phones and iPods are the most used devices. If not an iPod, mobile phone is one such gadget which is present in each and every home of Dubai. Earlier these phones were confined to traditional black and white colors however recently, with the introduction of new brands in the market; several types of phones were introduced in the market. Currently, approximately 50 mobile phone brands are present in Dubai. You can easily purchase phone and mobile accessories in Dubai because youâ€™ve plenty of options to choose from.

Despite of having the facility to buy cheaper phones, some people still prefer to be with Nokia, which is a leading Finland based brand in the market. Nokia phones are famous all over the world. Recently, seeing the increasing demand of gadgets, the brand has introduced new Nokia phones for 2011. Their latest line of phone series includes Nokia C, E, N and X. Among these phones, the commonly purchased models are E7, E75, E55, E63, E66, N9 and lots more.

Entire population is crazy about purchasing these phones because theyâ€™re easy to use, portable, light weight and programmed with excellent applications. Moreover, Nokia phone accessories are easily available on local retail stores so people donâ€™t have to look around for them.

Apart from Nokia, Samsung is the second best brand which sells normal black and white phones to colored versions and smart phones. Recently, it has been noticed that the sale of Samsung smart phones has increased since last few years. Some of these phone models are much more popular than Nokia, Apple or Sony.

Lately, teenagers are attracted towards Samsung Reality- a model which was introduced in 2011. This phone possesses outstanding features like secure display screen (which is password protected), instant connectivity, quick online access, high display screen resolution, touch screen features, sliding QWERTY keypad and colorful, personalized phone flaps which come in colors like pink, yellow, white and black.

In addition to this model, some folks also prefer to purchase Samsung Galaxy and Samsung Wave phones and tabs. If weâ€™re discussing about smart phones, we definitely cannot omit Apple from the scene. Apple is a popular brand among Dubai based merchants because it offers professional features that help them in their business related purposes. They can store millions of contacts, messages, worksheets, tables and whatâ€™s more? You can lock the confidential data by setting a password.

If youâ€™re thinking of purchasing iPhones, simply type â€œiPhone Dubaiâ€• in the search tab of your browsers and youâ€™ll get a list of top retailers based in Dubai. Additionally, you can look for the best vendors that sell iPhone 4 accessories Dubai and iPhone 4 / 4S accessories Dubai. You might need phone cases travel charges, speakers and headphones.
