Article published on April 26th 2012 | Technology

The Canon Powershot A495 has the compact style along with the relaxed minimalism which makes it an ordinary for those starters and everyone else who are looking for a sophistication and convenience. This is because of its smoothly-curved edges and sleek shape. And this is something we want to detailed in our Canon Powershot A495 review. This camera is also packed with the 10.0 megapixel resolution and a 3.3x optical zoom lens with a focal length of 37mm â€“ 122mm which makes the photography experience a truly easy and fun. Why? It is because these features allow the users to capture the action are amazing colour and excellent detail, either it is close-up or distant images.

To add to the earlier Canon Powershot A495 review, the Canon Powershot A495 also boasts the DIGIC III image processor engine which is capable of maintaining all the images sharp as possible. The new Scene Modes such as the Poster Effect for a unique artistic look and the Super Vivid for extra bursts of colour are also equipped in this camera in order to help the user to take advantage of their creativity, making their photographs to standout. Of course, just like all the Canon cameras, the Powershot A495 also has a bright and bold 2.5 inches LCD screen that makes framing and playback a real fun. Aside from that, the user can also choose from any of the three stunning colours.

In fact, the great features of the Canon Powershot A495 do not end there. Our Canon Powershot A495 review also want to emphasize the Smart Auto mode that is also crammed in this camera which is capable of doing the work in behalf of the user by intelligently choosing the accurate settings for the camera based on the 18 preset shooting conditions. More importantly, this camera is powered by the AA-size battery that allows the user to easily power up immediately. Well, the Powershot A495 is available in three different colours, namely the blue, red, and silver.

Just like the other Canon Powershot A495 review claims, it is indeed true that the Canon Powershot A495 is a type of camera which is loaded with features and packed with value. A lot of people have already proven that using this camera, spectacular and personal photos have never been easier to frame and them share. Of course, just like the other cameras of Canon, the Powershot A495 allows its potential users to create impressive photos of family and friends. And this is something that you can be proud of. To be exact, the photos of Powershot A495 taken from a high resolution can be enlarged up to 13 x 19 inches.

The Powershot A495 also offers compatibility to SD, SDHC, SDXC, MMC, MMC Plus, and HC MMC Plus memory cards. As you open the box of this camera, expect for its body you can also get the two AA-size Alkaline battery, wrist strap WS-800, digital camera solution CD-ROM, USB interface cable IFC-400PCU, and the AV cable AVC-DC300.
