Article Side
Exclusive appointment scheduling for your business by Makayasaul

Article published on July 19th 2012 | Technology

Current competitive business market needs something outstanding if you want your business to stand at greater heights. Working all day hard may sometimes makes you forgot daily meetings, events, presentations. But, the advanced digital era have introduced interesting app â€œSimply Appointmentsâ€•,an online Appointment scheduling software for your business. Put away your appointment diaries which you mostly forget to take it everywhere with you. You can now schedule your meetings anytime, anywhere online with this app. It lets you to schedule your business meetings online with new and existing clients.

Add Simply Appointments to your website and marketing material and with just three easy steps you can easily get service at a specific time. Send out automatic email reminders and streamline your whole appointment scheduling procedure. You can even manage when you have multiple schedules and locations. User has the ability to add a calender entry right into your email client. Skilled and talented iphone developers, iphone apps developers Sg have made it possible for the people to manage all your business just by moving your finger on your smart phone.

This application was founded in march 2010 which was intended to supply online appointment scheduling software to business. A very pleasant and professional appearance will tend you to register yourself by just clicking â€œfree 60 days trial versionâ€•. Fill the registration form which will ask yo to provide all the important details. This appointment app is available in four packages in which first is individual plus pack. This plan is intended for business with one to eight staff members. It also includes resources and staff management features and customization features. Second pack includes medium size pack which is intended for business off between 10 and 19 staff members. Large size pack is for business with between 20 and 29 staff members. And, lastly enterprise sized pack which is for business with between 30 and 35 staff members.

Save time, money and be the first one to provide customers the convenience of booking appointments online and stand out from your competitors. This unique iphone apps development Sg reduces your game of email and telephone tag. This interesting mobile app Singapore allows you to create accounts specifically for managers and receptionist. You can book your clients at any time. Place the booking button on your facebook profile and share it with whom you want to. Set up email and text message appointment reminders which will make you remind about all the important events and meetings.

If you don't have a website then you can get your Simply Appointments URL that you can use as your own website. Also featured with the ability to manage manager and receptionist accounts. It helps to run reports, create appointments, update client list, staff list. Also helps in super quick business registration.

Join Simply Appointments and stand your company up make it run within minutes.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/technology-articles/exclusive-appointment-scheduling-for-your-business.htm - Article Side

Makayasaul - About Author:
Author has written many articles on latest and advanced apps developed by skilled a iphone apps developers sg and mobile app.

Article Keywords:
iPhone app developers, Mobile Application Developer, Android application development,Mobile Apps Solutions

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!