Article published on April 3rd 2012 | Technology

Information Assurance

In the current environment, an organization Organizations today cannot afford a single a security incident that prevents disables the proper functioning of processes and operations for days, sometimes weeks for days or even weeks. The security of the Information security information should not be reduced to a set of technical measures established according to the availability of human and financial resources.,it is necessary to protect Information security is necessary for the survival of the company and therefore should betaken into constant consideration while making decisions the information of the organization every decision planning, and analyzing the profitability of each investments.,being sure that every decision is optimal in terms of investment and the result obtained, all point to the way forward is to adequately manage information security.

Today companies are faced with face increasing risks and uncertainties from a wide variety of sources that can significantly damage its information systems and can may threaten business continuity.

Under these circumstances it is imperative that companies evaluate the risks and establish appropriate strategies and controls to ensure permanent protection and safeguarding of information.

Effective management of information security can guarantee:

â€¢ Your confidentiality, ensuring that only those authorized can access the information.

â€¢ Integrity, ensuring that information and processing methods are accurate and complete and â€¢ AI ts availability, ensuring that authorized users have access to information and associated assets whenever needed required.

Our Services

milli micro system makes available to its clients the knowledge and technological capabilities for managing all the information needs of the organization. Mastiffs solutions and integrated security services offer , with the added value of personalization, and experience of our professionals with recognized security certification, and specialized in research and development of security solutions for systems and information technology.

In the field of information security, Milli Micro Systems develops its activities based on international standards. The services available to customers to meet their needs for advice on information security are grouped by the following index:

â€¢ System implementation information and security management

â€¢ Management system models

â€¢ Policy framework models

â€¢ Internal audits

â€¢ Training programs and awareness

â€¢ Review and improvement of the management system

â€¢ Comprehensive security consulting.

â€¢ Government audit and implementation of IT.

â€¢ Quality audits of telecommunications services.

â€¢ Evaluation, development, implementation and maintenance of Information Security Management Systems Information Security (ISMS), in accordance with ISO 27001.

â€¢ Consulting and implementation of ISO 20000, ISO 38500 and IT IL.

â€¢ Audits and implementation of information systems, using the Cubit model.

â€¢ Audit of compliance with the Data Protection Act. View Documentation â€¢ Audit of compliance with web accessibility standards.

Security analysis

We determine the integrity, availability and confidentiality of information managed by the organization in order to clearly identify the risks that are currently exposed currently exposed security holes that are exploitable by, such as hackers and , computer viruses which can gain , unauthorized access, information theft steal information, plunder bank accounts, and so on., and design the necessary controls to mitigate these vulnerabilities.m.

Consultancy

We provide support in achieving certification and adoption of standards and practices in information security:

â€¢ Safety Management System Information Information System

â€¢ Cobit

â€¢ ITIL

â€¢ ISO Standards

Improvement plans

We design and implement plans to improve security of information, appropriate to the objectives and needs of the organization in a PDCA process approach.

SECURITY CONSULTING Security Consulting

Design and implementationMMS can assist in the design and implementation of:

â€¢ Corporate safety plans

â€¢ Security policies

â€¢ Risk analysis

â€¢ Business continuity plans

â€¢ Forensic analysis

â€¢ Secure corporate networks

â€¢ Perimeter security solutions

â€¢ Authentication systems

â€¢ Anti virus policies

â€¢ Digital certification solutions

â€¢ Backup policies

â€¢ Advice in the event of to incidents and disasters

â€¢ Implementation of dashboards.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/technology-articles/information-assurance-and-milli-micro-system.htm - Article Side

Armaandas - About Author:
For more information please visit :--- a Information Assurance,milli micro system

Article Keywords:
Information Assurance,milli micro system

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!