With Gen-Z going frenzy on technologies, one very â€œin-thingâ€• in todayâ€™s world is Tablet PC. From corporate honchos to students, from media personnelâ€™s to defence executives, from ministers to celebrities, Android tablet is a hit with everybody. A creative genius called Allan Kay invented the idea of Android tablet in 1971, which today, is a huge hit in the market.

Android tablets are best buys only if certain criterions are kept in mind. First being the company and brand. Technology based buys should never be based on random buys. The company should be reputed and has a varied range of collections. Local or non-reputed international brands are never suitable. Secondly, guarantee and warranty provided by the company should be judged. Not one, but quite a few company models should be researched in terms of model, features, guarantee and warranty, battery capacity and accessories being provided because once you buy it should be your asset and not your liability.

Android tablet are best buys with the companies like Samsung, Sony, Essar. Models like Sumixe 7-inch Android 2.1 Tablet ($134), Corby Kyros Mid 7024 7-inch Android 2.2 Tablet ($170), Velocity Micro - Cruz T301 7-inch Android 2.2 Tablet ($192), Zenithink 2 ZT-180 10-inch Android 2.2 Tablet ($190) and Archos Arnova 10-inch Android 2.1 Tablet ($188) are the are the top models in Android tablet variations. These tablet PCs being highly stylized and improvised with the best features like 32 GB expandable memory, wide screen with HD quality, bass effect with sound quality, multi-socket, multiple USB port, large back-up battery, Wifi, Bluetooth faster and clearer net connections. Global share of pictures, music, videos or documents in social network sites or personal accounts are far easier and are provided with lot more ad-ons. With touch screen and digital pen facility, it is not only enviable, it is high fantastical. Hence, Android tablet should be bought from a reputed store acknowledge with ISI mark and has a workshop for default cases. Workshop allocated stores are essential as if ay default occurs in the product, the store should be able to rein stead the case. Android tablet, if bought from other location, the shipping charges should also be kept in mind. The store from which the product is being bought, if is from another location (be it another state or country), the authenticity of the store and the proper details of teh shipping company should be maintained. Also, it is advisable to buy Android tablets from the same location to avoid any issues.
