

Article Side

A Guide on Your Visit to Reading Berkshire by Steven Ralph

Article published on June 27th 2012 | Travel

Are you a resident of United Kingdom or a tourist from other part of the world planning to visit the town of Reading in the near future? If this is right, then there are some instructions you must read in order to make your tour to the wonderful town of Reading more enjoyable and remarkable. The first thing you need to learn is to pronounce the name of this town. The name is not pronounced as "Reading"™ but as "Redding"™. This is a common misunderstanding that causes majority of new misspell the name. The town is known for its enticing ancient history. There are a countless number of worth visiting places and historical spots in the town which are a treat for the tourists. It is known for its lush green and picturesque gardens, parks, museums, ancient sites, shopping malls and a lot more. The town is ideally located at the heart of the most attractive area of Thames Valley. Transportation facilities in the town which include Reading private car hire, taxis, vans, buses, coaches and trains are easily accessible throughout the year.

The Forbury Gardens is one of the most popular places of Reading. These gardens have been restored to their original splendor in the recent past. They are adjoined by the ruins of an Abbey which was sacked by Henry VIII during the dissolution of the monasteries. It is surrounded by a number of small towns, villages and suburbs. The London Heathrow airport is located at a drive of 40 minutes from Reading. This makes it easy and convenient for people to reach the town directly from UK's largest and busiest airport. The travel time for Reading to and from Stansted airport is about 90 minutes by road. The town is connected with all major cities and towns of United Kingdom via most convenient transportation services. You can travel via train from Reading to destinations which include London, Cardiff, Manchester, Oxford, Birmingham, Bristol, Plymouth, Portsmouth, Exeter, Cornwall, Swansea, Southampton, Winchester and York.

Aside from Reading airport taxi, you can also hire buses and coaches for traveling to the town of Reading. National Express is the company offering nonstop coaches from all major cities, towns and airports of United Kingdom to the town of Reading at economical fares. Getting to Reading via your privately hired car is also easy as the town is served by M4 Motorway running from London to Bristol and South Wales. The town is just about an hour's drive by car from the capital city of London. CrossCab is one of the leading online Reading cab booking firms. They are an online cab firm based out of Reading. CrossCab has been providing superior class ground transportation services to their customers around the country since many years. They provide cheap cab services without compromising on the quality. CrossCab has a fleet of thousands of vehicles which are regularly maintained and serviced to ensure passenger safety and comfort. They have won several prestigious awards by the borough of Reading for providing unsurpassed transportation services throughout the year.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/a-guide-on-your-visit-to-reading-berkshire.htm> - Article Side

Steven Ralph - About Author:

The travel time for a Reading to and from Stansted airport is about 90 minutes by road. CrossCab is one of the leading online a Reading cab booking firms.

Article Keywords:

Reading private car hire, Reading to and from Stansted airport, Reading airport taxi, Reading cab booking

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!