Accommodation in Dunsborough Western Australia covers everything from 5-star hotels, resorts and apartments to budget holiday stays such as caravan parks, tourist parks, bed and breakfasts, backpackers and home stays. Located a leisurely 3.5 hours drive from Perth, Dunsborough was voted Western Australiaâ€™s top tourist town in 1999 for the pristine waters of Geographe Bay and the perfect setting with its sandy beaches, quiet coves, nature reserves, nearby national park and picturesque walking trails.

It doesnâ€™t matter what type of accommodation in Dunsborough Western Australia you choose, you are sure to get the best value for your money. For water sportsâ€™ enthusiasts, the town is home to some of Western Australiaâ€™s finest swimming beachesâ€"Eagle Bay, Bunker Bay and Meelup. Whatâ€ more, the HMAS Swan is the best diving spot being the largest reachable dive wreck in the entire Southern Hemisphere. Situated north of the Indian Ocean, the beaches in this part of Western Australia boast sheltered, calm water and, like most other beaches in the state, are amazingly uncrowded. Set up a barbeque and you are ready for an exciting day out.

As well as the lovely beaches, your accommodation in Dunsborough Western Australia will put you in the middle of a vibrant cosmopolitan lifestyle, with market days and live music gigs in summer and an array of nationally renowned art galleries. Close by, world class restaurants offer breathtaking coastal and bush views. Other sought-after activities include canoeing, photography, cave and horse tours. Regardless of your age and interests, you will find something interesting to see and do near your accommodation in Dunsborough Western Australia.

Furthermore, there is an impressive range of 80 wineries and 220 vineyards in the South West, quite an achievement considering that the vines were first planted here only 30 years ago. If you are a wine lover, make sure that you set aside some time to try out the rich semillons, fruit intense chardonnays, robust cabernets and soft merlots. There are also a number of breweries in the area producing exceptional beers.

Whatever you plan to do in the South West, you can find accommodation in Dunsborough Western Australia close to the attractions and activities you want to enjoy. Many of these properties cater to student stays or specialized experiences such as romantic getaway and friendly or pet-friendly lodging. You can expect your accommodation in Dunsborough Western Australia to offer you the quality and exceptional service required to enjoy a memorable stay.
