Ranthambore National Park is located in the Sawai Madhopur district of Rajasthan. It is one of the best places to explore different kinds of animals including the Bengal Tiger. Here you can spot the tigers even in the complete daylight. You will get the opportunity to observe the day to day activities of tigers and other animals. You can easily see the tiger taking rest beneath the shades or even you can see the tigers chasing its prey.

If you are a wild life lover then different kinds of Safari in Ranthambore offers you an opportunity to spot out the various kinds of animals. The magnificent wild life safaris offer you an opportunity to hunt the treasures of the world known national park, Ranthambore. A large number of people enjoy the canter safari as well as jeep safari in Ranthambore. Though you can explore the park with the help of Canter Safari in Ranthambore but you will not get so much enjoyment like Jeep safari in Ranthambore. Jeep safari will offer you an unforgettable experience for your whole life. Jeep safaris are the preferable safari as it enables you to cruise deeper into the grasslands and the dense jungles of the Ranthambore National Park. With the help of jeep safaris, you can make use of the smaller tracks to explore the park and enter in the deeper zone of the national park.

Most of the people prefer to go for safari ride in Canter Safari. At a time canter safari can accommodate 20 people. Canter safari is noisy and one of the main cause to provoke the animals. You can enjoy this safari in two different times, one in the morning and other one in the late afternoon. Each trip of this safari requires 3 hours to complete. You have to take the help of these safaris only to explore the park as personal vehicles are not allowed in the park.

The best time to visit this park is from October to June. In the summer season, you can watch the lifestyle of the wild life in a different way. While your visit to this world famous national park, donâ€™t miss the opportunity to visit the Ranthambore fort which is of 10th century. It is the oldest fort of Rajasthan located at the top of the hill. Also make a visit to Jogi Mahal which is now transformed into a Relaxation house in the forest.
