Article published on June 6th 2012 | Travel

Yorkshire is one of the most beautiful and picturesque counties in England. It offers something for each and every tourist visiting over here. Be it complete peace or adrenaline pumping adventure, the county features for everything in store. However, it is necessary to look in groups of minimum for a suitable base for staying purpose while touring his beautiful county. There are plenty of hotels in yorkshire . However, indulging yourself in truly luxury boutique hotel can well be a pristine experience to have.

In recent years, there have been a wide range of boutique hotels that have developed at different parts of Yorkshire County. But the question is: what are these boutique hotels?

They are similar in facilities when compared to five star accommodation services. However, the boutique hotels can accommodate lesser number of clients when compared to five star lodges. The rates are also much less in boutique hotels. Due to this factor, it is always advisable to book them in advance otherwise you may simply miss out staying at five-star comfort while paying fewer rents.

A lot of Luxury hotels can be seen within Leeds. This city is located on the western side of Yorkshire County. Some quality hotels can also be seen within Bradford. One the southern side of Yorkshire lays Sheffield. It is said to be the greenest city in Europe. Over 2 million trees are available in this beautiful English city. Being an important tourist destination, the city also features a lot of luxury hotels, cheaper inns, and private guest houses. Some beautiful villas/bungalows are also available here. Although, rates are higher for single accommodation purpose but it proves cost effective when you are in group consisting of minimum six to seven members. Hiring a full bungalow is the cheapest accommodation option to avail.
