Bournemouth Bed and Breakfast by Raye Kahnik

Article published on December 5th 2011 | Travel

If you are looking for hotels near Bournemouth, luxury bed and breakfast Bournemouth is best for the stay. Boutique Bed and Breakfast had two light, airy and chic individually styled bedrooms. One king size and one super king size which also splits into singles. The quality bedding and decoration is calm and soothing while the stunning en-suite shower rooms have a hint of Hollywood glamour with walk-in rain showers, wall-hung toilets and wall-to-wall tiling. The emphasis is on locally sourced ingredients for the delicious home cooked breakfasts, which are cooked to order. A morning tea service is available, just state the time required and it will be delivered outside your door. One complementary afternoon tea per booking is offered to guests, which can be served in the morning room, sitting room of one of the many hideaways in the gardens. Bournemouth B&B is a unique place to stay with the emphasis on service and luxury, like a mini country house Hotel Bournemouth. Located in an idyllic wooded setting, like a country house hotel but by the seaside, less than two minutes walk from the spectacular Meyrick Park Golf course and historic park.

Bournemouth town centre is an easy walk which will take about fifteen to twenty minutes. The Hotel Bournemouth is also a Bournemouth Bed and Breakfast but with all the luxury added extras, to make a very special stay. Bournemouth B&B has luxurious bedrooms and fabulously comfortable beds, flat screen televisions and WIFI through the property. A choice of Hungarian goose down duvets or micro down is available. Each bedroom has hand starched bed linen with fluffy white bath robes for our guests enjoyment, The Bournemouth Bed and Breakfast is open throughout the year, with open fires, and stunning gardens, which are available for guests use throughout their stay. This new and extravagant Bournemouth B&B is privately owned and operated by Chris & Fiona Dixon-Box
