Munnar is a small yet exquisitely beautiful hill station in Kerala. The hill station is located in the Western Ghats and is one of the popular hill stations in south India along with Ooty. Many budget hotels have cropped up in Munnar due to its growing popularity. Here we have made a list of some quality budget hotels in Munnar.

Munnar is a small hill station in south India. It is so beautiful that it is sometimes called the Kashmir of South India. The hill station is well connected by roads but the nearest railway station and airport are more than 100 kms away. Therefore the main form of transportation are often buses and private taxis. Munnar gets it name from a malayalam word which means three rivers as Munnar is situated in the confluence of three rivers namely- Madhurapuzha, Kundaly and Nallathani. Once the former summer capital of the Bristish Raj it is now a popular tourist destination. Munnar is an idyllic place for nature lovers and wildlife enthusiasts. Munnar is rich in beautiful locations, rivulets and beautiful woodlands. The weather is very cool and comforting and humidity is low. It is home to many endemic species like gaur, elephants and grizzled squirrel, etc. who are conserved in the sanctuaries in Munnar.

Munnar is a much sought after tourist destination and as a result many hotels have cropped up ranging from budget to luxury. Budget hotels are quite affordable and are often the first choice of a large number of travelers. These hotels are comparatively cheaper than luxury hotels and often strive to provide better services at lower costs. Many hotels also offer extra facilities like complimentary breakfasts, guides and discounted rates.
