Blackpool is a beautiful and popular seaside town located in Lancashire england attract over 10 millions visitors each year. No matter what the season, you are sure to find something fantastic to do while on your holiday in Blackpool. With a breathtaking sea lined coast, Blackpool tourists are treated to miles and miles of an unspoiled, sandy view. Take a long walk with your new bride, or stop with the family for a beach side picnic. Or watch a romantic sunset with your toes in the sand while relaxing your cares away. There are amazing festivals held throughout the summer in Blackpool that you can enjoy if you are hoping to find some unique local flare; the illumination show in winter is quite popular as well.

Check in for some retail therapy and visit the fabulous Houndshill Shopping Centre for all of your favourite luxury boutiques housed under one roof. You can shop at Primark, Boots, River Island, Debenhams, Jane Norman, H&M, Next, and more.

There are lots of clubs you can check out for fun after dark in Blackpool too. Blackpool is a centre for a few of the best clubs in the area, attracting people from across the country. Whether you're looking for Rap, Pop, Disco or Cabaret, Blackpool has it all. So come see what everyone is going on about.

Take in the sites at the world renowned Blackpool Tower, or take the family to Pleasure Beach Theme Park. You might want to sit back and enjoy a concert at the Grand Theatre in Blackpool following your day at the beach; the theatre's schedule is booked with operas, ballets, comedies, plays, musicals, kids' shows, pantomime, and contemporary dance shows all year long.

One of the best parts of holidaying in such a tourist centric town is the deluxe accommodations available at your fingertips. You won't have any trouble finding a fantastic place to spend the night and relax, especially since there are more hotels and bed and breakfasts in Blackpool than there are in all of Portugal! There are tons of options for you to consider when choosing where to spend the night. Whether you are looking for a four star luxurious, posh suite, or a comfortable family fun hotel where you can casually rest between site seeing to relax with the children, there are options for every budget.

Stay in the Lanayr Hotel Central Blackpool that will let you relax as you take in the sites and fun of Blackpool. Blackpool is perhaps the most popular seaside holiday resort in the north of England and with good reason, with its diverse attractions and gorgeous scenery, it's the perfect place to take the family this year or book a posh honeymoon for that couple that loves to enjoy the sites!
