Article published on May 2nd 2012 | Travel

For once in a whole year I and my better half get to plan for the world's most romantic country, ITALY. Not to mention that every time we visited, we had a new glimpse, which has more attracted us to visit this culturally enriched country. This year we planned taking a walking tour to various places in Rome and to be very true had an extremely different experience of exploring and spending a vacation there.

Rome, one of the most romantic place in the world and every year millions of tourists come from around the world to admire the treasures and masterpieces of Roman art and architecture, where couples not only once but many times are in search of a great chance to visit this beautiful and enthusiastic place for a great holiday to be spent in the city, so hiring a assisted tour company to plan the vacation is the best way to visit the place, as there are lot of places to visit and to be interacted with the local culture but this is only possible when a soothing tour package with proper guidance is been taken into account.

Not only is this great place known for its engineering and the monumental structures but also for the tasty cuisine served almost everywhere in the city, tourist from all over the globe visit the place and love the city for its great food also, as pasta, pizza, spaghetti are some of the names of great dishes prepared or can say are originated from this place and now are ate by the people all over the globe,

With its taste, Rome has a Mediterranean climate which means it has hot and dry winters and warm and wet winters, simply a great climate to attract the tourist, even the city is full of activities and festivals in winter and spring where many tourists come to visit the city, so if anyone is moving to this place then taking into account the Rome Walking Tours is the best option, as the city has lot to see and if a person thinks to sit in a car and have a splendid joy of Rome then it is simply wrong, because the real beauty of the fabulous city cannot be count on one or two aspects, so one has to walk and see its beauty, as a small house or a monument speaks about the real essence of beauty blended with love which is spread in the air of the Rome everywhere.

This place is remarkable for its famous square and the fountains as the squares of that scatter the city with numerous points of historical, architectural and tourist interest and Rome Vacation Packages are simply dedicated for the tourist interest to provide proper guide to feel the actual blossom of the city by making you choose one small section of the city to explore each day, leaving yourself ample time to lounge over a cup of cappuccino at an outdoor cafe or a scoop of gelato at one of the dozens of ice cream shops, hence a true place to spend the holidays with your loved ones.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/city-tours-rome.htm - Article Side

Amanjain01 - About Author:
If planning for a Rome Vacation Packages then simply visit the internet and with few clicks with the mouse for a City Tours Rome you are all prepared to visit the exotic place

Article Keywords:
Rome Vatican tours, Tours of Rome

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!