It is a coastal town which is small. The Villajoyosa is located on the river Amadorio. This is only 35 km away from the Alicante airport. It is to the north west of the Alicante. This place is easily accessible. One can take any mode of transport like rail or road from the Alicante.

Temperature

This place is protected very well from rain and cold winds. The temperature is quite high. The place has mostly days that are sunny and bright. This is how it is almost the whole year. The winter here is very mild and the summer is unbearably hot. There is not much rain here.

About the Town

Villajoyosa comprises of the old town which is amazing with its big walls and bridges which sates back from the time of the Romans. The buildings here are painted with pastel shades which are very vibrant. Most of these buildings are either located in the front of the beach or on the side of the river. Just a walk here will make the tourist happy and relaxed. There is also a town hall where one can relax. The chocolate that is made here is amazing. Tourists who come here should not go without having the chocolate that is made there locally.

Villajoyosa is also known as the jeweled village. In the modern times people also call it the La Villa. This place became a municipality during the time of the Romans. However when the Muslims ruled this place, it was abandoned. Soon people here started their own language culture and religion which was more like the Muslim culture. Fishing was a major occupation then because there was not any way to connect to the land. The place still has a lot of towers which are apt for sightseeing.

Lots of festivals, which happen during the summer as well as the spring season, take place in the older streets of Villajoyosa. So when someone visits during the month of April they have to definitely be a part of the colorful festival that happens there every year. Visitors would definitely not miss this festival. There is also another festival which happens in the month of July which is spectacular. Every year there are so many tourists who flock the place to see this festival where there will be processions. People who are a part of the processions will be dressed in traditional costumes. There will also be lot of fireworks, music and dance.
