Delhi- a City of Countless Wonders by Kevin Thomas

Article published on January 23rd 2012 | Travel

India being a secular country, various religions are followed by its people. And Delhi as its capital city, has many religious destinations pertaining to different religions and beliefs. The most significant among them are the Akshardham Mandir, The Laxminarayan Temple, ISKCON Temple, Lotus Temple, Jama Masjid etc. The travelers of Flights to Delhi every year come in large numbers to visit these tourist destinations with religious significance.

The Akshardham Mandir also called Swaminarayan Akshardham is a modern architectural marvel which displays the Traditional Indian and Hindu culture. 7,000 artisans with the help of 3,000 volunteers constructed the building during a span of five years from 2000 to 2005. Located on the banks of river Yamuna and adjacent to the Commonwealth village it is spread across 100 acres of land. The temple complex consists of a large central building, hall of Values, a theatre, Musical fountain, boat ride, garden of India etc. The additional features found here are the Yogi Hraday Kamal, Neelkanth Abishek, Narayan Sarovar, Premvati Ahargruh and the AARSH Centre. Almost 70% of the travelers of cheap flights to Delhi visit this temple.

The Laxminarayan Temple is a Hindu temple dedicated to Laxminarayan and worships goddess Lakshmi â€“ the Hindu goddess of wealth and her husband Lord Vishnu-the Preserver of the earth. Also called the Birla Mandir it is a major tourist attraction for the customers of flights for Delhi. It was constructed by B. R. Birla during the period 1933 and 1939 and was inaugurated by father of the nation- Mahatma Gandhi. Spread across an area of 7.5 acres of land, the site also has temples of Shiva, Krishna and Buddha. Many shrines, fountains, large gardens and the Geeta Bhawan further beautify the look of the temple complex.

The ISKON Temple is one of the most magnificent temples located in the city. Built by Achyut Kanvindein in the year 1998 it is situated in the Hari Krishna Hill towards the east of Kailash. Also called Sri Sri Radha Parthasarathi Mandir it consists the deities of Lord Krishna and his beloved Radharani. Having one of the largest temple complexes in India, it is divided into four broad sections. It is home to many rooms for priests and volunteers using Delhi flights and halls which are used for administration purposes.

The Lotus temple also called The BahÃ¡'Ã- House of Worship is an architectural marvel situated in South Delhi. Built in 1986 its shape replicates a half opened lotus flower and is made of pure white marble. The tourists booking Delhi flights tickets visit this temple which has won many architectural awards. Also the Jama Masjid situated in Old Delhi is credited of being the largest mosque in India. Built by the Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan its courtyard can accommodate up to twenty-five thousand worshippers at a time.

Article Source:
http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/delhi-a-city-of-countless-wonders.htm - Article Side

Kevin Thomas - About Author:
Kevin thomas is a specialist content writer at a flights to delhi for business development. If you want to know about a delhi flights booking then you must visit flightstodelhi.me.uk or call 0203 142 5160 for book your a cheap flights for delhi

Article Keywords:
Flights to Delhi, cheap flights to Delhi, flights for Delhi, Delhi flights, Delhi flights tickets

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!