Manali, the most visited tourist spot of Himachal Pradesh is at the north end of the Kullu Region in Himachal Pradesh. As a hill station located at a height of 2050 m (6398 ft) in the Himalayas, it is situated on the Beas stream (Vyaas in Hindi). It is a popular tourist spot for Indians in summer and a miraculous, snow-covered spot in winter. A passing point for a number of treks (Beas Kund, Chandrakhani Pass) and adventure sports events such as white-water rafting, Manali is also on the highway to Ladakh via the region of Lahaul and Spiti as well as rohtang pass.

It is about 550 km from Delhi, the capital of India, and generally there are buses from all the neighboring cities including Delhi, Chandigarh, Phatankot, Hoshiarpur, Hamirpur, Palampur, Shimla, Dharamsala, Ambala and Leh.

For bus service from Delhi to Manali, tickets and reservation can be made at the Inter State Bus Terminus, as well as at the Himachal Tourism office on Safdar Hashmi Marg near Mandi House in New Delhi. However, if you want to save time, the best way would be to book Delhi Manali tickets online and save the trouble of going anywhere personally.

The very approximate travel time period from Delhi to Manali is 14 hours; from Ambala to Manali is 10 hours; and from Kulu to Manali is 1.5 to 3 hrs. Volvo busesâ€"which leave at around|close to 5PM and reach at 09-10 AM subsequent dayâ€"are accessible from Delhi and are the most suitable selection in terms of comfort and value for hard earned cash to reach Manali but you need to book each of these in advance. Hotels like Snow Valley Resorts book your volvo along with their hotel package.

As there are no windows opening in the Volvo buses Passengers are advised to carry some vomit treatment options and avoid consuming just before/after boarding the bus. Since the journey is extensively long, it is also advisable to consult your physician if you are above 60 years of age.

As your preferred travel and tourism partners, we offer our services all throughout the year. So whatever is your requirement â€“ whether you want to book a bus for Manali for your family or wish to go on a an extended trip to Panipat, Kurukshetra, Ambala, Chandigarh, Palampur, Dharamshala, Hamirpur, Kangra, Kullu, Rohtang Pass or even Leh, give us a call and weâ€™ll find the right bus to cover all these cities for you.
