Cobalt blue Sea, tropical ambiance, charismatic palms that add flavor to this unique Island, Mauritius is one its kind. An astoundingly beautiful Island in the Indian Ocean, blessed with breathtaking tropical beauty. Itâ€™s grand, sun-kissed beaches adorned with sparkling blue sea waves, tapping melodiously on its edges and washing away all the hustle and bustle of the moribund city life. Its white beaches and the luxurious hotels are its spinal cord. It has also earned itself global recognition for the splendid sites it offers for hiking, mountain climbing, diving and other adventure sports. Mauritius offers a lot more than other tropical destinations; it has a plethora of sightseeing and pulsating urban holiday opportunities for the tourists.

Mauritius is a global diving hub. Situated in the majestic Arabian Sea, Mauritius is one of the richest countries of Africa. Mauritius has one of the best beaches in the world, extended on approximately 160 km with a coastline of 200 km. Its coral reefs on the eastern side of Madagascar are very popular. The magnificent lagoons with the green trace are made â€˜cause of the coral reefs. Mauritius is an idyllic place for splendid vacation in a tropical spot. Its extravagant hotels, luxurious boulevards, excellent services are sure to charm the trotters into this divine destination, a mÃ©lange of urbanized, luxurious tourism and nature loverâ€™s paradise.

Malaysia Island Tours are a unique way of experiencing a once in a lifetime holiday. While on Malaysia, get surprised by the pleasant sites of Mauritius. Escape from the packed Mauritius Beaches to its lesser known counterpart Rodriguez, a tiny island lying 500 km northeast to Mauritius. Another major tourist destination is Grand Baie which was once called De Bogt Zonder Eyndt(Bay without End) by the ones who belonged to Holland. It is a pop resort among tourists and recognized for its nightlife, itâ€™s a cosmopolitan spot but is not a bad idea to base oneself. Its top Notch resorts will only make you appreciate your vacation.

Feel free to explore the capital city which is full of sites and spots from Colonial Era. Port Louis, is the chief economic center and also the biggest city in Mauritius. Visit the cityâ€™s biggest market Chinatown and take a trip through its astounding museums, brilliantly preserved colonial era buildings. Explore the scenic beaches at the Le Morne Peninsula which lies in the southern part of the Island and provides stunning views of the sea and the cliff. Pay homage to the gorgeous Botanical Garden and sense the French influence in the beautiful city of Port Louis.

Design your own package, a bit different and classier than other Mauritius packages and lose yourself in your own fantastical vacation. Feel the magic of the colors and visit the chamarel Park, the seven colored earth, and walk among the mesmerizing multihued surroundings. Feel the romance in the air; hear the song of the cascading waterfalls. Few meters away from Baie aux Tortues, the old balaclava ruins are totally worth a visit. Among others, the Flacq Market, Mahebourg, Eureka Creole House, Gabriel Island, Black river Gorges National Park etc are the must see places of Mauritius.

It is difficult to choose an apt holiday package when in this moribund lifestyle there is not much time left to pamper oneâ€™s self, so Mauritius Holiday Packages are the perfect idea to pamper oneâ€™s self the luxury and witness the tropical beauty.
