Delightful Bed and Breakfast Pontefract Guesthouses by David Jane

Article published on July 21st 2012 | Travel

Bed and Breakfast services are common in England and some parts of Europe where travelers can enjoy the best of local home stays with homemade breakfast to greet one in the mornings. There are many B&B guesthouses in Pontefract which offer delightful and comfortable board and lodging with breakfast. Such places of stay are slightly away from Wakefield City Centre in the quaint and tranquil Featherstone village.

Locality delight

Many Bed & Breakfast Pontefract service providers are locals who open their homes to travelers; their operations are located close to Wakefield but far enough for some desired tranquility and peace in the countryside. One can get to Pontefract easily for a great day outing to explore the natural surroundings and offerings.

One can also visit Castleford and Xscape with theÂ Junction 32 OutletÂ close by. There are many places to visit and explore without being bored.

B&B guesthouses in Pontefract are usually located in a semi-rural district at a mile away from the locally famous Pontefract Race Course. There is a recently opened shopping mall called Freeport with the Xscape leisure park.

Services and amenities

Comfortable and affordable accommodation awaits singles, couples, families, businessmen and all who travel past Pontefract. There is ample supply of clean and comfortable rooms at B&B Pontefract which is a preferred site for those who come for ATL training in Featherstone.

Delightful bed and breakfast Pontefract guest houses offer a homey atmosphere with private and en-suite rooms with the comparative amenities of city hotels. The rooms are well equipped with in-room tea/coffee facilities, television and great views to farmersâ€™ fields.

All rooms boast of private facilities such as full central heating, clean towels and double or twin beds. Rooms are also equipped with wireless broadband connection to the Internet with the availability of the Internet technology even in Pontefract. Guests who come by cars can find ample parking space which are monitored by CCTV for safety and security of belongings all the time.

Breakfast offering

The highlight at any B&B Pontefract guesthouses is their delightful English breakfast. They are homemade and freshly prepared every morning to refresh any guest. Continental breakfasts are also available upon request.

Travelers would feel really at home sipping a cup of hot and aromatic English tea or coffee to start their day in Pontefract. There are shops and pubs in the nearby city to entertain guests during the day or night.
