Rajasthan tourism can reward you with lots of fun and amusement. Brimming with rich heritage, invincible forts, stately palaces, fascinating wildlife sanctuaries and mind blowing temples, thereâ€™s much more to be rediscovered by you. Explore the golden sands of desert lands, old-fashioned villages, the undulating sand dunes, man made lakes and heritage hotels at Rajasthan. However, exercise extreme caution as you traverse foreign lands.

Sights to See

At Jaipur, the pink city of India, visits to Amber Fort, Nahargarh Fort, Jaigarh Fort, Jal Mahal, Hawa Mahal, Jantar Mantar, Albert Hall Museum, Birla Temple, Rambagh Palace are a must. Udaipur, the city of lakes is the perfect idyllic getaway with numerous charming sights such as Lake Palace, Jagmandir Bastion, City Palace, Monsoon Citadel, Saheliyon-Ki-Bari, Lake Pichola, Eklingji Temple, Fateh Sagar Brook, Jagdish Temple, Udai Vilas Sagar and more. Jodhpur, of Thar Desert is Indiaâ€™s blue city and is most sought for camel safaris and desert tours. This city presents you with an exciting array of forts and palaces such as the Mehrangarh Fort, Jaswant Thada and the Umaid Bhawan Palace and so on. Bikaner, the city of camels is famous for their camel breeding grounds, research centers, Junagarh Fort, Fort Museum, Lalgarh Palace and so forth. Remember to carry along hats, goggles, sunscreen lotions and scarves to beat Rajasthanâ€™s summer heat.

Considerations

If you are going to India for the first time, donâ€™t forget to bring along a valid tourist visa that has been issued by the Indian embassy in your country. Without this, you wonâ€™t be allowed to cross the border. Carry an extra file with spare copies of all your important documents such as passport, visa, license etc. This saves you from depositing the originals at various checkpoints on your Rajasthan or Kerala travels. As there are no limits on the amount of foreign cash that you are allowed to bring on your tour, so be sure to carry a reasonable sum with you all the time. In case you are short of hard cash, donâ€™t worry. Now, many hotels, departmental /grocery stores and travel agents accept MasterCard, Visa, American Express and the like. While undertaking sight seeing tours, be wary of impostors who pose as guides. Do not drink water from public taps and rivers. Always drink mineral water that is available in sealed plastic bottles. Some reputed brands of drinkable water include Kinley, Aquafina and Bisleri. Indian food is generally spicy and can cause gastric problems to novice. Including fresh curds in your diet is a great way to neutralize the food and soothe your sensitive digestive system.
