Though Kerala needs no introduction still some travelers are still unaware about its magical natural features. Being the much sought-after destination in India, it collects a large number of tourists throughout the year. It is the only state in our country which still holds the untamed beauty of this side. If you want to witness most of the much-loved tourist destination in this enhanced state, you need to opt for Kerala tour and travels. We shall tell you each and every fascination in depth.

First of all, Kerala backwaters catch the biggest attractions of most of the tourists who want to spend time amidst natural splendour of our country. Backwaters in Kerala is simply defines as a chain of lakes, bays, canals and rivers, interconnecting to each other. Due to this procedure, this area thus gets fresh water, unspoiled natural surroundings and romantic valleys to enjoy. In other words, we can say that simplicity is the priceless jewel of this place that is rarely found at any other region due to the chaos of modern life. Cruising on houseboats is the true appealing way to explore the exceptional wonderments of backwaters. With the availability, of Kerala holidays, it would possible for you to dig into its magic.

Besides it, Kerala has the lovely nickname attached to it named as â€œParadise on Earthâ€•. The forestland of this magical state is also rich in flora and fauna. Periyar National Park is one of the worth-visiting wildlife reserves this area that spreads over an area of 777 sq. km. Established in 1934, it protects the maximum population of tigers. Alongside, it houses other fascinating animals and species including 171 grasses, 143 orchids. It is advisable to visit at this national park during summer months. One can perform trekking, elephant riding angling, etc. over here.

If want to experience magic of gods in the forms of natural wonderments like rolling mountains, natural surroundings and rhythmic waterfalls and silent valleys, Munnar has infinite splendours to offer. It is the only hill station in this territory which is covered by breathtaking sightseeing. Due to its calmness and mild cold climate, this area has been chosen for the production of highest growing of tea.

Apart from it, it has other pilgrim centres or historic monuments and sun-kissed beaches etc. Thus, travelling to Kerala is a lifetime achievement of your life.
