Gran Canaria has a lot of things to offer to all tourists who choose it as the ideal place to spend a holiday or vacation in. It is a land with amazing but very different landscapes and every exploration journey is most enjoyable and interesting to the liking of every visitor coming here. It is one of those places that you will be looking forward to know what the next area has to offer different from where you are. Excursions within the island are pretty amazing.

Tejela: it is very outstanding with the impressive landscapes surrounding it. It is here that you will find most beautiful grounds of green valleys which have almond cultures right by the Bentayqa and Roque Nubo mountain peaks foot. It is a very interesting place to be makes it to the amazing excursions list of the island.

Teror: this is a village that is dazzling since it has a floating look to it and you will be forgiven to thinking that it is actually air floating. It is located several meters above the sea level and surrounded by mountain ranges which are breathtaking. It is most popular because of the pilgrimage and you will also find the colonial style houses here very nice and interesting as well.

Arucas: it is an old town that had beautiful parks. The location near the high coast within the island is breathtaking and you will enjoy exploring the area where you will find small bays and a huge banana plantation that is of great importance to Gran Canaria Island. There is also a volcano near the town adding to the treasures of the area.

Santa Maria de Guia: it is located on the northern side of the island and will expose you to caves which have petrified lava for their enclosure tossa de mar. The caves are some of the things that form the major attractions here and are worth visiting around the Gran Canaria.

Agaete: it is by the seaside and you will easily view the papaya plantations on the magnificent canyon. The plantations also contain bananas, coffee and avocados. The other feature found here and one that you cannot afford to miss out on is the thermal springs Balneario de los Berrazales.

Arinaga: your excursions tour should also take you to this area on the south. You will find the landscapes here breathtaking and there is also a fishing village that is quite romantic.
