Do you want to experience the comfort of home away from home? Then definitely travel to Leh as the people here are extremely humble and friendly and their simplicity and hospitality is world famous. During the peak season of tourism, the people of Leh convert their houses into guest houses and the visitors who take Leh tours are accommodated as paying guests.

Here they get all the luxury and comfort of a home and even for a fraction of a second the tourists do not have the feeling that they are thousands of miles away from their native place. Such is their warm welcome that visitors remain awestruck and promise to return back certainly next year. There are varied types of accommodation facilities in the place, from luxurious hotels and resorts to lodging that your pocket permits. So while traveling to Leh, you do not have to think much, but just concentrate on your tour and which hot spots you are going to explore.

You will have hard time choosing from the vast variety of tour options that are placed before you, such as the safari tour, honeymoon tour, festival tour, adventure tour and trekking tour. Adventure tours are the most popular among all these as they provide large number of sports and adventure options which include white water rafting, skiing, ice skating, biking, jeep safari and mountaineering. Sight seeing is the first choice of the honeymoon couples as they get ample time to spend with each other in privacy while exploring the land of rich natural beauty. Spectacular mountain ranges, water rushing from glaciers, stunning valley, historical monuments and beautiful monasteries too fascinates them.

As summer is the proper time for Leh travel, the tourists get acquainted with various festivals that are organized at during the summer season. During this period, the place comes alive and bubbles with full spirit, excitement and enthusiasm to welcome visitors who take a Leh tour. The festivals are world famous for its colorful costumes, processions, cultural shows and exhibitions performed by artists from all over the country. Numerous stalls are installed where you can purchase local handicrafts and clothes that are very unique and you can even shop in the Tibetan Refugee Market and The Main Market. You will not at all feel as if you are away from home as the people here offer delicious delicacies whether it is Indian, Kashmiri or Tibetan. They are so tempting and mouth watering and will remind you of your home.
