The title of this piece should give you an idea of what we are talking about.Yes, we are talking about India, one of the most sought after tourist destinations that one can come across in the Asian continent.Cheap flights to India are available in plenty on travel portals that offer exciting flight deals to international destinations. No description about a sightseeing trip to India is complete without a mention of some of its exotic places. Though it is practically not possible to describe all destinations in detail but there are a few destinations that definitely deserve a mention. These include places like Delhi, Khajuraho and Mumbai that are one of the most visited destinations in India.

Delhi

Indiaâ€™s capital and one of the most vibrant metropolis in Asia, Delhi offers a sensory experience for any visitor booking their flights to Delhi. Reckoned as a truly international city, Delhi is a unique blend of the old and new. The city has successfully managed two worlds in its fold, one being Old Delhi and the other New Delhi. Old Delhi has managed to retain its medieval heritage but New Delhi has gone ahead and transformed itself into an international metropolis that is now at par with other international cities in Asia, Africa, Europe & South America.

Khajuraho

Famous for its temples that are known all over the world for their erotic stone sculptures, Khajurahoâ€™s temples offer a profound sensory experience for any visitor. Highlighting the unbridled freedom that women enjoyed in the medieval times, these temples are said to have been built in the early 12th century and are ode to the sexual union of man and woman. A tour of these temples would clearly reveal the eternal truth that sexual fulfillment is the pathway to God and that co-habitation of a man and a woman is one of the most blissful pleasures enjoyed by humans.

Mumbai

Mumbai, as you will realize, after concluding your sightseeing tour of the city is a lively, pulsating and exciting metropolis that is a veritable melting pot of people from all cultures and nationalities. It is said that some people who step into the city never go backâ€¦such is the charm and allure of Mumbai. The city has quite often been referred to with sobriquets like the â€˜City of dreamsâ€™, â€˜City th never sleepsâ€™ that highlight its 24x7 nature and its unbelievable ability to provide food, work and shelter to anyone who steps into its fold. But what is most remarkable about the city is its ability to bounce back after every setback and set an example for others to follow.

The best part about all three destinations listed above is that one can find direct and indirect international flights to these cities from all major international destinations, a fact that increases the allure of these cities even more.
