One unique thing about “Incredible India” is that one can visit India, any part of the year, as India offers temperature difference of up to 30 degrees at any given time at two different places. Visiting India, one can’t miss the lifetime experience of Tourism in Rajasthan. Rajasthan possesses the only hot desert of Indian Subcontinent with beautiful sandunes surrounding dominating forts and calm lakes. In addition to the rich tradition, Rajasthan presents rich cultural heritage in the deserts. Rajasthan tours will guide you through the entire state covering Forts, lakes, Camel safaris, Night in Sandunes, Pushkar fair, various religious shrines and travel on special tourist trains like Palace-on-wheels.

There are numerous festivals in Rajasthan which are a place of attraction and exhibit prosperous ethnicity of Rajasthan. To name a few are Nagaur fair, Pushkar fair, Urs fair, Mewar and Gangaur fair, camel festival and Holi elephant teej festival. If you are visiting Rajasthan, then don’t think your charm for wildlife will be compromised. Rajasthan tour packages will sail you through to some of the famous sanctuaries of India like Bharatpur Bird Sanctuary, Sariska Wildlife Sanctuary and Ranthambore National park. These sanctuaries and national parks offer the tourists, plethora array of birds, animals, reptiles and flora and fauna. Tourism in Rajasthan is imperfect, if you let pass the golden brown deserts and sandunes at sunset. Sam sandunes is the closest point where one can see a total sandy desert, just 45 kms from Jaisalmer. Also the camel safari taking you through the sand dunes of the Thar Desert in Rajasthan is surely an experience of a lifetime. Majority of the Camel Back Safari in Rajasthan originate at Jaisalmer.

Rajasthan tour packages often include journey in special tourist trains characterised by rich culture of Rajasthan. There are two major trains, Palace-on-wheels and Heritage-on-wheels. These trains offer 5 star luxuries on board and will take you around the fascinating state of Rajasthan and mainly cover the heritage sites, palaces and wildlife in Rajasthan. Another beautiful destination in Rajasthan tours is Udaipur, the city of lakes. There are a number of lakes and palaces built inside the lakes offer you a mystifying blend of desert charm and crystal clear water bodies. Some of the important places to visit in Udaipur are City Palace, Fateh Sagar Lake built by Maharana Fateh Singh, Pichola lake, Saheliyon ki Bari, a garden which means “Gardens of maidens” and Jagdish temple dedicated to Lord Vishnu and Lord Jagannath built in 16th century.
